

In Brief

DANDY DIAMOND DOGS

Dogs rescued from the Animal Welfare League at Hoxton Park will be making their way to their new homes in style, thanks to two Randwick women. Despina Rosales and Anneliese Helmy have teamed up to kit out the dogs with bandannas, which will be given as a housewarming gift to families who adopt the animals. Ms Rosales said they planned to give the bandannas to a range of other animal organisations, including the RSPCA and Randwick Dog Rescue. "We wanted to make a difference for our four-legged friends who were waiting to be adopted," Ms Helmy said. The Animal Welfare League can be contacted on 9606 9333.

Andrew from the Animal Welfare League with Toby (wearing leopard print) and Cuddles (in basic denim).