

Unscramble these Clucky Phrases

Activity by DESPINA ROSALES / Illustrated by GAYE CHAPMAN

JUST LIKE a tasty egg dish, the following phrases are all scrambled. You can't unscramble an egg—but you can unscramble these unusual phrases about eggs and birds to reveal the common phrases that they've come from. Have a go!

The Scrambled Phrases:

- Putting all your eggs home to roost.
- Don't count your chickens without breaking eggs.
- Walking on the worm.
- Killing two birds with eggshells.
- You can't make an omelette in one basket.
- The early bird catches one stone.
- The chickens are coming before they're hatched.

The Phrases Unscrambled:

Don't count your chickens before they're hatched; You can't make an omelette without breaking eggs; Putting all your eggs in one basket; Walking on eggshells; The early bird catches the worm. Killing two birds with one stone; The chickens are coming home to roost.